

NO CENSORSHIP JAPANESE PAPERS EDITORS' BELIEF

Belief in the Japanese community today is that the Japanese newspapers published in Honolulu and elsewhere in the territory will not be affected by the new censorship law over all newspapers printed in foreign languages.

As soon as the news reached here that President Wilson had issued orders of censorship over all newspapers printed in foreign languages, the editors of the four Japanese dailies called upon Postmaster D. H. MacAdam and asked him for full particulars regarding the operation of the new law. Mr. MacAdam, they say, assured them that nothing will be done by his department until he receives definite instructions from Washington.

The local Japanese newspapermen are of the opinion that because Japan is a member of the Entente alliance Japanese newspapers will not be included in the censorship.

"QUICK, STEVE, THE NEEDLE," HE SAYS; SLEUTHS ARE SHOT

A new squad has been organized at police headquarters. There is the domino squad, the strong arm squad, the blind pig squad, the gasoline squad, and so on and so forth, ad infinitum. But they got a new one Sunday. Dr. R. G. Ayer of the Emergency hospital, has marshaled his forces together, and they made their debut yesterday in the new role of the "hypo squad." Dr. Ayer and his hypo gunmen stalked into the inner sanctum of the detective bureau, looked the doors, called each sleuth to the front of the office, looked at his teeth and felt his pulse—and gave him a shot of the needle. Then they silently left the room and went on a still hunt for the cops.

The reason for the new squad is the menace of typhoid fever. Dr. Ayer has received orders to inoculate everyone in police headquarters with typhoid prophylactic serum, so he and his men got busy with the sleuths Saturday. The uniformed squad will get theirs today, and the civilian clerks tomorrow. Warning to citizens—don't grab any cops by the arm. Remember the days of your youth and the insidious vaccination mark.

HONOLULU BOYS MAKING GOOD IN NEW ARMY

Word was received yesterday of the success of Harold Morgan in passing his examinations for the aviation corps. He will be sent to the University of California for training.

Ralph Gray, son of Mrs. L. M. Gray of Kala road, has passed his exams for the aero squad and is awaiting orders at Berkeley to proceed to the flying camps at San Diego.

Marston Campbell, Jr., has been promoted from lieutenant to captain in the U. of C. cadet corps, and has been detailed as instructor at the flying school at Berkeley.

Richard Halsey, inspector at the immigration station here, has received word from his son that the latter has been sent to American Lake, Wash., where he has been detailed to the national army.

Clarence Emory, son of Architect W. L. Emory, is now in France with the Yankee troops, according to letters received here recently.

GOVERNOR'S PASSPORT O. K., SAYS BABBITT

"Governor's passport sufficient," is the text of a telegram received this morning by Mrs. W. H. Babbitt from her husband, who recently arrived in Manila.

Mr. Babbitt's passport was a document issued by the governor, regarding which the morning paper endeavored to work up a sensational story to discredit the governor.

Mrs. Babbitt plans to join her husband and was naturally interested in the experience of Mr. Babbitt in traveling through Japan and Hongkong on a passport certified by the governor.

This experience was so entirely satisfactory that experience appears to have settled the question.

GOODHUE EXONERATED; NAME ON GUARD LIST

Maj. Will Wayne, acting adjutant general, stated today at guard headquarters that he has received a report from the commanding officer of the 2nd Infantry regarding the case of M. S. Goodhue, a member of the national guard, whose name was not on the national guard list which was sent to Hilo at the time of registration for the draft.

Maj. Wayne will forward all the details with a report to Maj. F. J. Green, officer in charge of the draft, who is at present on Hawaii.

"There appears to have been some misunderstanding," said Wayne, this morning, "by which Goodhue's name was retained at the company headquarters in Kona instead of being forwarded to Hilo. I shall make a full report to Maj. Green."

WILHELMINA BRINGING SIXTY-FIVE PASSENGERS

The following wireless message has been received by the agents of the S. S. Wilhelmina, bound for Honolulu: For Honolulu: Fifty-six cabin passengers, nine steerage passengers, four bays of mail, 128 packages of express, 11 automobiles and 5650 tons of cargo.

For Kahului: Four hundred and eighty-one tons of cargo. The Wilhelmina will dock at Pier 15 Tuesday.

267 OLD CASES WILL BE DISPOSED OF TOMORROW IN LOCAL POLICE COURT

Two hundred and sixty-seven civil cases, which have been on the police court records for several years, will be called up tomorrow afternoon by Judge Irwin for final disposition.

Chief Justice A. G. M. Robertson, who, in 1904, appeared as counsel for the Kaneohe Ranch Co. against the Hawaiian Stock Yards Co., is expected to be in court. The defendant company, however, since the institution of the suit, was burned down in a fire which threatened to destroy the block at King and South streets.

With the exception of Circuit Judge S. B. Kemp, and other "malihini" attorneys, all the Honolulu members of the Hawaiian Bar Association have had something to do with the case to be called up by Judge Irwin.

ANNIVERSARY
Tomorrow is the birthday anniversary of Princess Kaiulani, and in commemoration of the day a special music and literary program has been arranged by Mrs. Nina L. D. Fraser, principal of the school. The exercises will be held on the premises of the Kaiulani school. Mrs. M. K. King is musical director.

It is expected that Prince J. K. Kalaniana'ole, Delegate to Congress, will speak to the children on the life of the late princess. Prince Kuhio is the only surviving child of the late princess. Her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani, who is too weak to honor the occasion by her presence, Princess Kaiulani was born October 16, 1875.

Unless prevented by unavoidable business, one of the old day court "oil" women will chant the sketch of the life of the late princess. At the conclusion of the program, about fifteen girls from the Eighth grade, under the supervision of Mrs. M. K. King, will ride up to the Royal Mausoleum on Nuuanu street to decorate the coffin of the late princess with lilua lei.

In the absence of the Hawaiian band, the Kaiulani school orchestra, composed of James Hakuole, Mahalo, Ah Min and two others, will furnish music.

The program follows:
(1) Alahau song; (2) Reading on Kaiulani's life; (3) Song, "He Lei no Kaiulani"; (4) Recitation by Room 31, by Robert L. Stevenson; (5) Song, "She Sleeps, the Darling of Her Race"; (6) Recitation, "Dreaming of Throne," written by Ella Wheeler Wilcox; (7) Musical Selection by School Orchestra; (8) Ua mae ka pua o ka lilua; (9) Aloha Oa.

BOATS VIOLATING PORT CLOSING RULES DO SO AT THEIR OWN PERIL

Navigators who hereafter violate the port closing rules do so at their own risk and peril, declares a formal notice from the harbor commissioners which appears in the Honolulu press today. The notice is published as the result of the attempt of several vessels to enter Honolulu harbor last week before sunrise, which were fired upon and forced to turn back to sea by the guns of Fort Armstrong.

As a signal to mariners that the port is closed a red pennant will be flown from Fort Armstrong and the pilot tower on Pier 7.

The notice to mariners is signed by W. R. Hobby, acting chairman of the harbor commissioners, and reads as follows:
"Notice is hereby given that a red pennant will be exhibited from Fort Armstrong at the entrance to Honolulu harbor, and from the pilot tower on Pier 7, warning all vessels that the port is closed while said pennant is flying during the prohibited hours for vessels entering or departing from the port of Honolulu covered by restrictive rules and regulations adopted."

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Leah Chapter, No. 2, Order Eastern Star, meets this evening in Masonic Temple for regular business.

Rt. Rev. Henry Bond Restarick, bishop of Honolulu, yesterday consecrated the Church of the Epiphany, Kaimuki. The bishop preached from the text "The Church of the Living God."

A guessing contest will be had after the meeting of Olive Branch Rebekah Lodge, No. 2, Thursday evening at which prizes will be given to the winners. Dancing and refreshments will follow.

Conferring the third degree on 12 candidates will take place this evening at the regular meeting of Harmony Lodge, No. 2, I. O. O. F., at which prizes will be given to the winners. Refreshments will be served on the roof garden.

When Ellis Joseph, the "bird man," returns to Honolulu he will bring with him a specimen of the duck-billed platypus, or ornithorhynchus, an animal aquatic in its habits. It will be placed in Kapiolani park.

William Mossman was indicted by the territorial grand jury Friday afternoon on a charge of having forced the name of Mrs. R. Lishman to two orders for goods on E. O. Hall & Son. He has asked the court to appoint an attorney to defend him.

Madame Fidler, her little daughter, Baby Raly, and Lady Sen Mei, the Chinese nightingale, were given a big ovation at Fort Shafter, Saturday evening, when they appeared in a musical and dancing program. The entertainment was given at the Fort Shafter amusement hall.

E. A. Davis, indicted on a charge of manslaughter, pleaded not guilty in Circuit Judge Heen's court Saturday. Bond was fixed in the sum of $1000 and the case placed on the calendar to be set for trial. Davis is alleged to have run down and killed a Japanese with an automobile.

The skeleton of a man, who must have died several months ago, was found in Nuuanu valley yesterday by a party of children picking in the vicinity of the Clarence Cooke residence. Deputy Sheriff Julius Asch was notified, and after examining the remains, had the bones interred at Pearl City. The bones were found near where the militia are now patrolling.

C. M. Elie, manager of Detor & Elie, and the Hawaiian Jewelry and Novelty Co., who recently returned from the coast, says that everywhere he visited on the mainland shows evidence of growing prosperity. Every store, shop and factory is working to capacity; money is plentiful, and people are more optimistic over business conditions than at any time in 15 years.

Saturday six prominent musicians were tried in police court for allowing the mufflers of their automobiles to emit loud and annoying noises Friday while on public streets. Although they offered some kind of excuse, claiming that their mufflers had not been tuned up properly, Judge Irwin turned a deaf ear and fined them $10 each. Motorcycle Officers Ferrera and Branco were the arresting officers.

PRAYER PILGRIMAGE BEGUN IN HONOLULU

The weekly pilgrimage of prayer began in Honolulu yesterday when the local Episcopal churches featured sermons on the subject of prayer.

At St. Andrew's cathedral at 9:14 this morning there was a celebration of the Holy Communion followed by a special litany for missions. This litany was said also at 12 and 2 and 4 o'clock. Between these services there was a continuous intercessory prayer by persons appointed by the vicar but it is understood that as many others as can find a moment will also engage in these devotions.

Tuesday will be the day at St. Clement's and also at Epiphany church, Kaimuki. Wednesday the Hawaiian congregation at St. Andrew's cathedral and St. Peter's congregation will take their turn in their own churches. The days taken by other parishes will be announced later as some changes have been found necessary to suit the conveniences of the people.

CARD OF THANKS.

Dan K. Kaeo and family, residing at Waikiki, take this opportunity to thank their many friends for the expressions of condolence in the late bereavement, and for the many beautiful floral tributes sent by them.—

ed by the board of harbor commissioners and published in the Honolulu Star-Bulletin, Wednesday, April 25, 1917.

RESERVOIR NO. 1 GIVEN CLEANING

No new developments were reported today in the discovery by board of health officials that typhoid germs exist in the Nuuanu reservoir water. With the Pali road closed by national guardsmen to all pedestrians, the situation appears to be well in hand, it is announced.

Reservoir No. 1 has been thoroughly cleaned out by men in the water and sewer department of the city and county, and Fred Kirchhoff, superintendent of the department, said today that a game will begin cleaning out either No. 2 or No. 3 tomorrow morning. Members of the gang were examined by board of health officials this morning for traces of any disease which makes it inadvisable to put them on the job.

There was seven feet of water in No. 1 today, the department having begun to let the water in last Saturday afternoon. The upper levels of the city are being supplied with water from No. 1, and this water has been chlorinated, this process tending to destroy all organic matter and bacteria.

In spite of the water in No. 1, the supply remains low and a slow steady rain is now all that is needed to relieve the situation. A heavy rain will make conditions worse as it will make the reservoir water muddy, says Engineer Kirchhoff.

Until some definite conclusion has been reached as regards the nature of the germs which are thought to be those of typhoid, all residents using Nuuanu reservoir water have been advised by Mayor Fern to boil it before it is used.

N. G. H. SERGEANTS TO BOSS PACKING

Three quartermaster sergeants from the national guard quartermaster corps will be sent from Honolulu to the other three islands to supervise the packing of equipment and supplies and their transportation to Honolulu for the guard encampment which begins on November 9.

Sergeants First Class Leslie C. Thompson and Arthur R. Brown left Saturday afternoon on the Mauna Kea. Thompson will go to Hawaii and Brown to Maui. After Brown has finished his duties on Maui he will go over to Hawaii and assist Thompson in the work. Sergeant First Class Jasper L. Pettenger left today for Kauai to attend to similar work on the Garden Island.

It is now definitely decided that the Matagonia will bring troops from Hilo and Hamakua districts. The vessel will leave Hilo on Sunday morning, November 10, arriving at 3:30 o'clock that afternoon at Kahului to pick up troops from Wailuku, Punene and Paia. All of these will arrive in Honolulu Monday morning.

Troops from Kona and Kau will come on an Inter-Island vessel, arriving here Friday, November 8. The Lahaina troops will probably come with this contingent. Kauai will depend on the regular schedule of the vessel and the exact date of the guardmen is not announced.

Walmea's troop of cavalry will come as foot soldiers, but an attempt is being made to secure enough horses to supply them. Major Joaquin Camara stated today that the exact date for the Oahu troops to leave for Schofield has not been set. General J. P. Wiser left today for the post to look over the site that has been recommended for the camp. This is on the town side of the wireless station, where a big plain is regarded as a splendid location.

CONFISCATED OPIUM SENT TO WASHINGTON

Going forward to Washington is a large consignment of opium which has been seized during the past year by the customs inspectors here. The opium is being sent to the marine hospital in Washington where it will be used for medical purposes.

One of the packages of opium shipped from here contained 401 tins, which, at the present price, has a value of $40,100, if it could be legally marketed. There were also a number of smaller lots.

After opium is seized here by the customs men it is held until the case of the smuggler is disposed of in the courts, or hope or apprehending him is given up. The owner of the 401 tins was never discovered. It came to Honolulu on a Matson boat from the coast in a trunk which was never called for. Later, the inspectors opened the trunk and ascertained that it contained opium as had been suspected.

CAUTIOUS TRIP IS MADE HERE BY OCEANIC BOAT

Liner Brings 28 Passengers for Honolulu—Many Officers on Board.

Leaving San Francisco after the report of the German raider in the Pacific had been published in the coast papers, an Oceanic liner which is in port today showed more than usual caution in her voyage here from the mainland, but the trip was otherwise uneventful.

In all, the liner has 101 passengers in both the first and second cabins. 28 of whom are for Honolulu. Her only cargo for Honolulu was 44 cases of butter and 514 bags of mail. Her through cargo totals 275 tons. A number of the through passengers are veterans of the fighting on the West front, most of them Australian or New Zealand officers who have been given leave to return home after nearly three years' service. One of the veterans is P. J. Ceis, a Belgian, whose home is in Australia. He is accompanied by a nurse, as he is still very ill after his long siege of trench fighting.

The British officers are Lieut. F. W. Carruthers, Lieut.-Col. Alexander Horn, Lieut. Stanley Howarth and Capt. T. Stang.

Hon. S. T. de Goes, one of the through passengers, is consul general for Sweden in Australia. He has spent the last several weeks in Sweden, but would not discuss Sweden's position in the recent diplomatic crisis.

Two passengers, Mrs. Roland Forbes and Mrs. A. Meinertzhagen, are booked to leave here by the liner. Mrs. Meinertzhagen, whose husband is an officer of intelligence with the British army in Palestine, and whose father is the British military attaché in Paris, has been doing a great deal of work in the London hospitals. She has also been secretary to one of the largest war hospitals, with an accommodation of 1500 patients. She is making a long trip to rest from three years' strenuous work and stopped off here recently to extend her visit to the islands.

The Honolulu passengers arriving by the liner were as follows: Miss F. Clayton, Mrs. E. L. Kinslea, Dr. C. L. Marlenee, Mrs. Marlenee, Mrs. M. L. Pasterius, Mrs. W. L. Reed, Mrs. B. Rouse, Mr. A. Seiner, Mr. C. Serenison, Mrs. L. G. Stark, Mr. E. A. Swenson, Mrs. Swenson, Miss M. Swenson, Mrs. A. C. Anderson, Mr. C. A. Biding, Mr. R. T. Goff, Mr. W. M. Lyons, Mrs. Lyons, Miss L. E. Lyons, Mrs. F. L. Macafee, Master F. Macafee, Mrs. P. Miguel, Master A. Miguel, Master L. Miguel, Mr. W. Peters and Mr. A. H. Roberts.
